

Command Sgt. Maj. Mark E. Stephens currently serves as the Command Sergeant Major for Atterbury-Muscatatuck. Stephens, a native of Shelbyville, Ind., has enjoyed a 30 year military career, having enlisted in the Indiana National Guard in June 1980.

Stephens has an Associates of Applied Science degree from Vincennes University and is pursuing a Bachelors degree in Aviation Maintenance at Embry-Riddle.

Some of Stephens's assignments include Command Sergeant Major 38th CAB Shelbyville Ind., SPO NCOIC 638 ASB Lafayette, Ind., SPO NCOIC 38th CAB Balad, Iraq, CSM 638th ASB Lafayette, Ind., OPS NCO 38th CAB Shelbyville, Ind., 1SG Co B, 2-238 AHB Tuzla, Bosnia, PLT SGT Co B, 1-137th AHB, UH-1 Technical Inspector 681st Air Ambulance, Shelbyville, Ind., Aerial Observer Section SGT Troop C 1-238th CAV, Shelbyville, Ind., Aerial Observer Troop C 1-238th CAV, Shelbyville, Ind., Observation Helicopter Repairer Co.E TAM 238 Aviation Battalion.

Command Sgt. Maj. Stephens' military schools include United States Army Sergeants Major Academy, 1SG Course, Army Maintenance Manager Course, Advanced Non-Commissioned Officer Course, Army Aviation Accident Prevention Course, Basic Non-Commissioned Officers Course, Sikorsky UH-60 New Equipment Training Course, Battle Skills Course, Enlisted Aerial Observer Course, Basic Non-Commissioned Officer Course, and Observation Helicopter Repairer Course.

Command Sgt. Maj. Stephen's awards include Bronze Star Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (2), Army Commendation Medal (2), Army Achievement Medal(2), Army Good Conduct Medal, Army Reserve Commendation Medal(6), National Reserve Service Medal(2), Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal(3), NCO Development Ribbon(4), Army Service Ribbon, Indiana Commendation Medal(3), Indiana Long Service Medal, Indiana Overseas Medal(2), Indiana OCONUS Medal, Excellence in Competition Award(Bronze), Mississippi Emergency Service Medal, Master Army Aviation Crewmember Award.

